

Catherine Heaps Bachelor of Education (Honours)

Catherine has an Honours Degree in Education awarded by the University of Manchester and spent 12 years working in the UK secondary school system, five of which were as teacher in charge of English.

Catherine worked extensively on the moderation process of external English Literature examinations and was the Secretary of the North Western Examination Board's Moderation Group.

Moving to New Zealand in 1990, Catherine and her husband have brought up four sons whilst farming sheep and growing and exporting kiwifruit. Catherine has also tutored in Media Studies at Massey University, Communication Skills at Waiariki Polytechnic, Taupo, and ESOL tutoring at Taupo Language and Outdoor Education Centre.

Catherine also helped to develop the library at Mokai Bilingual School and was Treasurer of Taupo Primary School.

Since moving to Wellington, Catherine has been involved in voluntary work at her sons' schools and, until joining Strata Energy, taught English Language Skills at Taita College.
